Eric Lee Description

Calling Eric Lee a enthousiastic artist and incredible musician only just brushes the surface of his phenomenal charisma. For over 30 years Eric has performed with great passion a distinctive , unmistakable Boogie constantly recreating his style as he plays.

Numerous jam sessions with stars such as Fats Domino, Count Basie, Udo Juergens prove his remarkable talent in improvisation. Performing as a warm-up band in the sold out Zurich Hallenstadion Eric even surprised Lionel Richie by receiving a standing ovation and almost „stealing“ his show.

Famous celebrities such as Princess Caroline of Monaco, Franz Beckenbauer, Wendelin von Boch have re-engaged Eric Lee for private performances in order to once again experience his awesome talent.

After several years of living in seclusion, Eric could be found in the background of the music-business working as a producer and songwriter and instructing young musical talents in the art of improvisation.

As a result of many years of experience in the field of music the members of the ERIC LEE and his BAND with its unique formation are determined to redefine the Boogie!
