POETRY: Cocktails for the Traditional

DEATH IN THE AFTERNOON

10.50

Straight from the pages of Hemingway, this recipe of champagne and absinthe shares its name with his book.

MARY PICKFORD

up charge applies 7.50

Prohibition era cocktail made with white rum, pineapple juice, grenadine and Maraschino liqueur. Sweet but with a real kick, just like its namesake.

VESPER MARTINI

9.50

Pay tribute to 007 with his signature cocktail made with gin, vodka and Lillet. Ordered only once by James Bond in the classic Ian Fleming novel Casino Royal.

SAZERAC

8.50

Created by apothecary Antoine Peychaud in 1838, the Sazerac is the official cocktail of New Orleans. Absinthe, rye and three dashes of Peychaud's Bitters.

MOSCOW MULE

up charge applies 6.00

Invented in 1941, a classic cocktail combining vodka, mint and spicy ginger beer. Served in a traditional copper mug.

SIDECAR

7.50

Considered by some the best cocktail from the Prohibition era. Made with Cognac and orange liquor.

FRENCH 75

9.50

With a kick as powerful as the French 75mm field gun, this sparkling cocktail is refreshing and effervescent combination of champagne, lemon and gin.

DARK AND STORMY

8.50

A Bermudan classic, this highball cocktail uses dark rum, ginger beer and a splash of lime juice. Sounds like the beginning of an adventure.

PIMM'S CUP

7.00

Gin-based potation created in London in 1840 by James Pimm. Filled with herb-based liqueur, lemon juice, fresh cucumber and fresh fruit. A Nola favorite.

OLD FASHIONED

7.50

Muddled sugar, bitters, whiskey and a twist of rind. The original cocktail.

ADVENTURE: Cocktails for the Uncommon

BEACHCOMBER

7.00

A light rum cocktail with bright citrus and a hint of maraschino to take you away to the tropics.

SCORPION

10.00

Invented in Hawaii, the Scorpion is the most famous of the Tiki cocktails. Using both light and dark rum with brandy and a splash of orange juice, this cocktail packs a punch! Served in a Hemingway Tiki Mug.

MAINSTREAM: Beer by the Bottle

Budweiser • Bud Light • Coors Light • Michelob Ultra • Miller / Miller Light • New Belgium Ranger IPA
