

Shwe Inn Tha Floating Resort

www.inlefloatingresort.com

1) "Situation de rêve"

J'ai vécu ici 3 jours de bonheur. Certes les prix annoncent un hôtel luxueux mais le vrai luxe c'est l'environnement et les installations un peu vieillissantes mériteraient d'être améliorées. On est cependant transporté dans un monde aquatique qui, du somptueux lever de soleil, au merveilleux coucher du même soleil apporte une énergie bienfaisante. Il y a des imperfections, le bar, l'isolement qui rend captif à la nuit tombée (pas de déplacements autres que le bateau quasi impossible la nuit), le bruit des pirogues à moteur, mais la restauration reste correcte et l'expérience globale mémorable. j'y reviendrais avec grand plaisir.

Philder from Saint-Raphael, France
Level 6 Contributor (December 8, 2016)

2) "Serenity in the lake"

What a wonderful and unique hotel in a magnificent and unique place. The Shwe Inn Tha was just great and the owner and staff made it even better. Clean rooms, great food and close to everything on Inlay Lake. The lake and this hotel are gems. Loved it so much I went back twice.

GregAussie1 from Melbourne, Australia
Level 5 Contributor (April 10, 2017)

3) "Paradise"

It's not the most luxurious place and you're not going for the food which is average, but the views and the tranquility of the place makes it one of the best and most memorable experiences. I stayed for two nights and never left the lake oasis -- there was no reason to do it because all I wanted to do was the relax, sit at the pool, read, and watch the sunset which is the most magnificent. And yes the boats are loud, but that's really all you ever hear out there. It's so serene. The boat ride there I saw the sun rising, fisherman on their boats and their one-legged paddling, birds and the majestic hills. It's truly paradise. And the rooms are huge, clean and the bed very comfortable. The staff very friendly and nice.

Sassysandyg from New York City, New York
Level 6 Contributor (March 3, 2017)
