program: Pamir Highway and Lenin Peak

Season: end of June-August

Day 1 (23.06.2018) Departure from EUROPE

Day 2. (24.06.2018) Arrival at Dushanbe.

Early arrival in Dushanbe, Meeting the group at the airport, Transfer to the hotel, Accommodation, Rest. Excursion about the city. Visit to Gurmini Museum of traditional musical instruments and Museum of Antiquities, a wonderful of Buddhist art from the lost cities of Kushan empire, the Greco-Bactrian school of art from various sites along the Oxus and elsewhere, with great Buddha in Nirvana (After destroying of Bamian Buddha in Afghanistan this is the biggest in Central Asia). Overnight stay at the hotel. (Changes of altitudes during the day: in Dushanbe - 800 m).

Day 3. (25.06.2018) Dushanbe - Kalai-Humb (350 km, 6-7 hrs driving)

Departure to Pamirs via Kulyab region or via Tawildara and Khaburabad pass (depends of the road and weather condition). We can see more conservative attitudes of this region in local dressing style and beards, but the hospitality is just as welcoming. We pass over Khaburabad mountain pass to Kalaikhum and the scenery and the people change again. The people here are Badakhshanis with their own languages. There are seven different languages used in Tajik Pamirs. Kalaikhum sits on the Panj River, a major tributary of the famous Amu Darya (Oxus) River. Accommodation in the hotel.

(Changes of altitudes during the day: Dushanbe - 800 m, highest point on the pass - 3720 m, end of day in Kaila-Humb - 1200 m).

Day 4. (26.06.2018) Kalai-Humb - Khorog - Ishkashim (380 km, 8-9 hrs driving)

The road will follow near Pani River, a tributary of the mighty Amu Darya (the famous River Oxus). During this entire trip, we will see Afghanistan from right side across the river, where the big difference of lifestyle of Afghan and Tajik Pamirs is visible. We will see the effort of the Afghanis to have their first highway that is built with no machinery. Khorog is the administrative centre of the Pamir region, dramatically set deep in the valley at the confluence of the Panj and Ghunt rivers and boxed in by the mountain peaks. Not far from Khorog (45 km) there are the famous Mineral Hot Spring-Garm Chashma and Ruby Mines of Khu i Lal (where Badakhshani rubies were mined as early as 14th century). The road to Ishkashim is smooth journey. Ishkashim is a small town at the mouth of the Wakhan corridor, where the 19th century Great Game ended. Continue up the north side of the river with amazing views of the Pamirs to the left and the Hindu Kush to the right; a number of peaks in view are above 6,000m. If you are lucky and you arrive to Ishkashim on Saturday, you can see the Crosse border Tajik-Afghan market on the Afghan side. For crossing to the market, you do not need an Afghan visa. Family run accommodation.

(Changes of altitudes during the day: Kaila-Humb – 1200 m, highest point - 2500 m, end of day in Ishkashim - 2500 m).

Day 5. (27.06.2018) Ishkashim – Hissor Village (150 km/5-6 hrs driving including excursions) On the way visit to one of old fortress in Silk Rode-Kah-Kaha in Namadgut, museum of Sufi Muborak-kadami Vakhani, a local Sufi scholar, theologian, poet and traveller, who died in 1910. Near his house, there is a stone pillar with a hole, which he used to calculate a solar calendar and a local house with inscriptions and decorations made by the scholar. On the way we will also visit Buddhist Stupa in Vrang, sacred hot springs of Bibi Fatima Zahra, ruins of Yamchun fortress (IV-III B.C.) that once guarded Pamir branch of the Great Silk Road. Family run accommodation.

(Changes of altitudes during the day: Ishkashim - 2500 m, highest point - 2900 m, end of day in Zong - 2900 m).

Day 6. (28.06.2018) Trekking (12 km, 5-6 hrs)
