Hello Members and welcome to the start of our new AEAWA 2019/2020 year and there is no better way to start the year than with our Mother's Day Lunch. This is the ONLY time that our Sunday Lunch is held on the first Sunday of the Month and not the usual second Sunday of the month, so please remember the date is the 5th May 2019.

Thank you to the Members who attended the AGM held on the Sunday 14th April and I am pleased to introduce you to the Management Committee that will look after the Association for the next 12 months they being Vice President Gary Aviet, Secretary Rex Frugtniet, Treasurer Garrath Ishiguchi, Committee Members Dennis Koek, Francisca Scully, Shoshanna Beins, Kay Klass, Roy Wieffering, Brenda Parasuranam and Mario Byrne and of course myself as President.

Kay, Roy, Brenda and Mario are new members to the Management Committee so please welcome them when you see them.

Also congratulations to Samson Armitage winner of the Andrew Clark Award for Sport and Mirielle Augustin winner of the AEAWA Scholarship and our Congratulations to Mikayla Grosse for receiving the second grant of the AEAWA Scholarship.

Following the presentation of the Awards and Scholarships the future of both of these were discussed and during the next twelve months the Management Committee will be looking at as to whether to continue with the Awards for Sports, Arts and Community Service, as they are or whether to change these completely either way you will be informed of any changes.

Our Mother's Day lunch is usually well attended and we expect the same thing this year, we will have some great food and the entertainment will be by Clifford Sequerah and Friends and there will be some special giveaways to all the Mum's present as well as a raffle just for the Mum's, so please bring Mum or Grandma along so we can show our appreciation to someone very important in our lives.

With the new Management Committee in place we will now be finalising the 30th Anniversary as well as a few other functions.

As I stated in my President's address at the AGM I am getting in early and informing you all that this will be my last year as President, so I am giving you all plenty of notice to start thinking about someone to lead this fantastic Association into the future.

Take care of yourselves and we hope to see you at the Mother's Day lunch.
