Hello Members, our Father's Day lunch was well attended with quite a few Dad's present, where they enjoyed a great lunch together with a raffle just for the Dad's and finished the lunch off with a beer.

Thank you to all the cooks and helpers as we were a bit short this lunch with some of the usual helpers either away or had other commitments, thank you to Valerie Conier who is now doing the announcements for us.

Following the lunch we had the annual Eurasianlympics whilst we only had a small group of participants those that were there had a great time with lots of fun and laughter whilst playing volleyball, table tennis, tug of war and finishing with the egg and spoon race with this year's winning team "The Reds" comprising of core group of Tien, Gary A, Luke, and Kirk and ably helped out by Emy and Shirley.

Thank you to all who participated in the games and to Garrath for organising the day as well as Judy, Francisca and Dennis who cooked the sausages for the sausage sizzle after and a big thank you to the few Members who hung around to support and cheer on the competing teams.

The next lunch is October 8th and it is the lunch where we recognise our Seniors so please come along and join us, there will be some great food and this month the entertainment will be a Ukulele group which has some familiar faces in their line-up including Robert & May Harding, Michael & Margaret Chowdhurie to name a few.

Don't forget the Spring Dance on the 28th October the details are outlined on the front page of this newsletter.

The week-end away set for late November has been postponed to a date yet to be determined due to the small number who had expressed an interest in going to Busselton.

Those of you who put your name down to attend the Bentley Pines Dinner on the 14th November please note that the $25.00 per person needs to be paid at the October lunch, if you are unable to attend the October lunch please ring me to make alternative payment arrangements.

Inside you will find information on the Children's Christmas Party forms will be available at the October lunch and need to be returned together with payment no later than Friday 17th November.

Also available from the October lunch will be nomination forms for the Awards and Scholarships

You may have noticed that the phone number shown throughout the newsletter is a bit different to what has been used in the past and that is because there is now a dedicated AEAWA phone number and not my personal number being used also we have a new email address and that is aea-wa2302@gmail.com.

Hope to see you at the next lunch but in the meantime take care of yourselves.
