

The Active Peace Prayer

Break my brokenness with Peace and contentment
The Rhythm of life is you my Lord
Let me breathe you and exhale all the ties me down
Empty me of me and fill me with your grace
Bathe me in love so that I may be a reflection of you to all I encounter
Intentionality is my path, deliberate and purposeful to your will Expand and foster faith and hope, and help me let go of fear and anger
Let Peace flow through my veins and let mercy be my companion
Clean the clutter and sweep the cobwebs that confuse and contain my thoughts
Make me whole in you Lord, selfless and humble and privileged to serve
Open my eyes and fill my heart
Hear my prayers and teach me your ways.

Amen.
