What could be better than waking up to the lovely fresh air and views to the mountain, with the added bonus of being able to stroll into town, drop the children at school or take part in the many community events happening weekly in Rolleston.

This is no small town, no; this is New Zealand's largest growing town, and we want you to come and see just how great it is.

The Oakmont plan is cleverly designed three bedroom, two bathroom house – small enough to not be spending all your weekends cleaning, but enough space for a family to live comfortably.

Considering Rolleston? Then consider Olivefields!
