WHY PARTNER WITH ASSET GENERAL INSURANCE SERVICES?

It's a fact, no matter how large or small your business is, you will need some kind of business insurance to protect yourself and your assets.

George Sismondi, Director of Asset General Insurance Services, will personally partner you to provide creative common sense solutions that are designed to both save you money and protect your business.

Asset General Insurance Services have over 45 years combined insurance experience that will ensure all your insurance requirements are met.

Pictured right, Director George Sismondi enjoys good business relationships with his clients and understands their business needs.

George will:

- Review your insurance needs to find the best policy for your requirements
- Assist you throughout the entire process of quotation through to renewal
- Assist you with claims, amendments, business reviews and renewal
- Provide appropriate advice and direction

George builds long term relationships with his clients and in doing so becomes an integral part of your team, protecting and growing your business.
