BAGAN

Some 200 km southwest of Mandalay and 600 km north of Yangon, Bagan is to Myanmar what Angkor is to Cambodia, Ayuthia is to Thailand and Borobudur is to Indonesia — the most magnificent architectural flourish of an ancient people. Sprawling away from the banks of the Irrawaddy River, more than 3,300 temples, pagodas, stupas and ruins grace more than a 42 square kilometers. Some date back to the 9th and 12th Centuries, and all contribute to what National Geographic hails as "one of Southeast Asia's greatest archaeological heritage sites."
