- the suspension of the redemption of the shares;
- the termination of the management or liquidation of the Company or a sub-fund;
- changes to the Articles of Association of the Company that are incompatible with the existing investment policies, that affect material investor rights or that affect the fees and reimbursement of expenses that can be paid out of the assets of the Company;
- the merger of funds in the form of the information on the merger that is required to be prepared according to article 43 of the Directive 2009/65/EC;
- the conversion of an investment fund into a feeder fund or changes to a master fund in the form of the information that are required to be prepared according to article 64 of the Directive 2009/65/EC.

Taxation in Germany

The Fund predominantly invests at least 51 % of the net asset value in equity securities, which are listed on a stock exchange or traded on an organized market, and which for this purpose are generally not investments in shares in investment funds. If investments are made in shares in investment funds the amount of the publicized NAV-frequent equity ratio, (i.e. to the extent to which they effectively invest in the equity securities named above) is taken into account as well. Investments in Real Estate Investment Trusts (REITs) are not eligible equity securities for this purpose.

It is strongly recommended that investors seek professional advice concerning the tax consequences of the purchase of the Company's shares prior to making an investment decision.

For information in respect to the charges and expenses payable in respect of an investment in the Company, investors are referred to the "Fees and Expenses" section of the Prospectus.
