OTHER NOTES

We thought we would make 19th March (the game against Richmond) not only a Members' Day, but also a "Ladies' Night". Bring along your wives, fiancées and girl friends to the Hornsey bar after the game and we'll make it a good evening.

This week's reminder about the Rules: that appealing or remonstrating against an Umpire's decision could be judged to be "behaviour which... amounts to mis-conduct" which could result in being sent off. Obviously, this is rare, but even minor objection doesn't actually do any good while only upsetting the Umpire (who is doing a difficult job) and annoying the opposition.

Peter Phillips took the wrong stick after the 6th XI game last Saturday: if anybody else has the wrong one would he get in touch with Peter (PRI 8484).
