

HOCKEY IS ONE OF TODAY'S MOST POPULAR TEAM SPORTS

- It is a thrilling spectator sport played on fast artificial grass pitches
- National Success - Great Britain won the Gold Medal at the Seoul Olympics
- Over 1750 Men's and Women's clubs in England, and in excess of 150,000 players
- Players ages 6-66 - mini-hockey to vintage - a social and family sport
- The National Hockey Stadium at Milton Keynes seats 4,000 spectators

PLAYER PROFILE

Survey of National Hockey League Clubs 1997

1997/98 MEN'S NATIONAL HOCKEY LEAGUE PREMIER DIVISION

Barford Tigers (Birmingham)
Beeston (Nottingham)
Cancock
Canterbury
Doncaster
East Grinstead

Guildford
Hounslow
Old Loughtonians (London)
Reading
Southgate
Teddington

DIVISION ONE

Blueharts (Hitchin)
Bournville
Bromley
Brooklands (Manchester)
Chelmsford
Firebrands (Bristol)
Gloucester City
Hampstead & Westminster
Harleston Magpies (Suffolk)
Havant
Hull

Indian Gymkhana (London)
Isca (Exeter)
Lewes
Loughborough Students
Oxford Hawks
Oxford University
Sheffield
St Albans
Stourport
Surbiton
Warrington

WOMEN'S NATIONAL HOCKEY LEAGUE

PREMIER DIVISION

Clifton
Doncaster
Hightown (Liverpool)
Ipswich
Olton (Solihull)
Slough
Sutton Coldfield
Trojans (Southampton)

DIVISION ONE

Bracknell
Bradford
Canterbury
Chelmsford
Leicester
Loughborough Students
Sunderland
Wimbledon

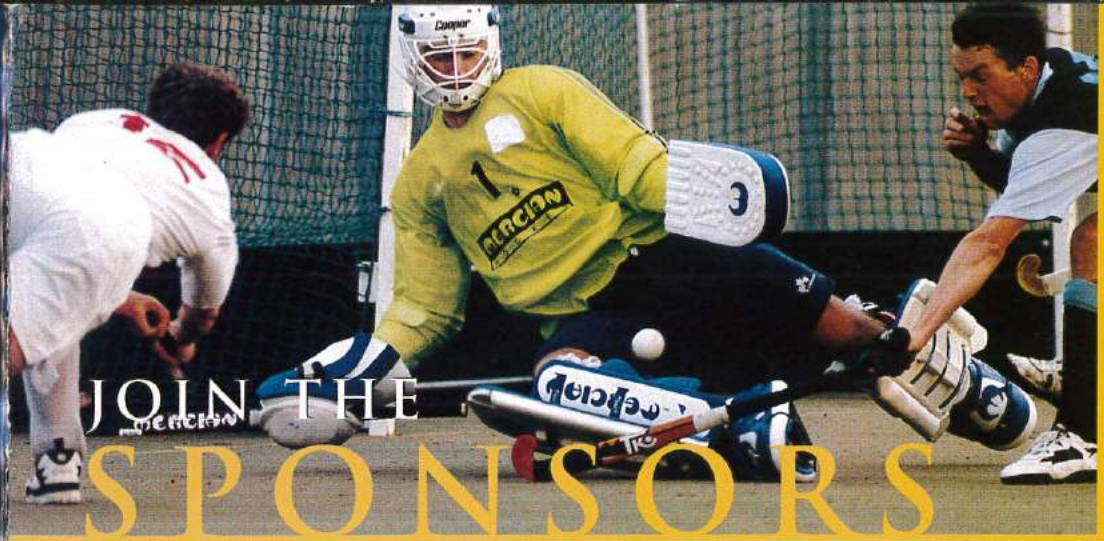

DIVISION TWO

Aldridge (Walsall)
Blueharts (Hitchin)
Ealing
Old Loughtonians (London)
Poynton (Stockport)
Sherwood (Nottingham)
West Witney
Woking

For further information on how to become an official sponsor of the National Hockey League, please contact the League Administrator Stephen Barlow.

THE STADIUM,
SILBURY BOULEVARD, MILTON KEYNES MK9 1HA
TELEPHONE: 01908 241100

of the
NATIONAL HOCKEY LEAGUE

