

HAMPSTEAD HOCKEY CLUB

Bulletin for week ending 2nd January 1966

LAST WEEK'S RESULTS

All games v. St. Alban's etc. were CANCELLED

FORTHCOMING EVENTS

Thursday 6th January	Hockey Circle : Desmond Eagar (Sunday Telegraph)
Friday 7th January	General Committee Meeting : Agenda to follow
Thursday 3rd February	Hockey Circle : Debate on "Competition at Club level"

The General Committee recently decided to hold a "Members Day" once a year, on which Vice-Presidents, Honorary Members and other non-playing and old members would be invited to Hornsey to watch the 1st XI play and partake of refreshment etc. after the game. We decided to make the regular date for this Members Day, that on which the 1st XI was due to play either Oxford or Cambridge University at home (i.e. mid-October or early December). However, since we have just established the Honorary Members' category this year, and to get the idea off the ground, we decided to hold our first Members Day at the end of this season - on 19th March, when the 1st XI are playing Richmond at home. Would you make a note of this date and encourage any old members or non-playing members you know to write it into their diaries?

OTHER NOTES

This week's reminder of the Rules - that we are back to the old "sticks" rule : it is an offence to raise the stick above the shoulder when playing at the ball either at the beginning or end of the stroke.

N.B. RECENT CANCELLATIONS AND CHRISTMAS HAVE PUT TEAM CAPTAINS OUT OF TOUCH WITH PLAYERS' AVAILABILITIES. WOULD EVERYBODY WHO DOES NOT PLAY THIS SATURDAY, EITHER BECAUSE THEY ARE NOT AVAILABLE, OR IN RESERVE, OR BECAUSE THEIR GAME IS CANCELLED AGAIN, PLEASE GET IN TOUCH WITH THEIR CAPTAIN, OR WITH MYSELF (COLIN GREENHALGH) BEFORE MONDAY EVENING (3RD JANUARY) TO REPORT THEIR AVAILABILITY FOR 8TH JANUARY AND SUBSEQUENT SATURDAYS. OTHERWISE THEY ARE IN DANGER OF BEING OVER-LOOKED.
