

HAMPSTEAD HOCKEY CLUB BULLETIN 6.12.1976

Results	2nd XI	4th XI	5th XI	6th XI
v Tulse Hill	1-1	6-1		1-3
v Southgate			2-0

"The second XI played like a load of Gods" - quote from the Waiter of the month. John Curry made an appearance at half time and was more at home - it was later discovered that it was Mike Baker in disguise.

The 2nd XI took little notice of the comments flowing from the touchline. Despite attacking Tulse Hill for most of the game, failed to score more than once. Colin Tweedie finished off an excellent move to score the goal, and considering the treacherous condition there was some skilful hockey played. It was certainly better to play than to stand around in the cold, there were peas for tea instead of beans.

Recent SPANIARDS results:

v Reading 0-0. v Walton 0-1. (not many goals)

Since I am writing this in the club house on Saturday evening, you are unlikely to get the quality prose to which you are accustomed, so I shall be brief.

In order to obtain the concession you must ring the Restaurant in advance (437 9595) and show your Fixture Card on arrival.

GRAND XMAS DRAW. I have had only three offers of prizes so far. Surely some others must have something to offer.

NEWSPAPER COLLECTION. I haven't forgotten - I hope you haven't. I am making arrangements to store paper in the Tennis Hut.

DARTS. Hockey B side 'hammered' the ladies and somehow reached the final where they comprehensively lost to the Honorable Artillery Co or something like that.
