

HAMPSTEAD HOCKEY CLUB EASTER TOUR. 1907-08

Hampstead Hockey Club had an Easter tour on the South Coast. On Good Friday they played the Leicester Regiment at Shorncliffe and beat them by four goals to one. S. H. Shoveller made a promising debut at right full back, and gave signs of being quite a sound defensive player. F. W. Orr and C. H. Eiloart scored twice each for the winners. On Saturday Hampstead beat Folkestone by five goals to two scored by S. H. Shoveller 3, G. E. Winter, and F. W. Orr.

On Easter Monday the tourists went to Dover and were defeated by the Garrison there by three goals to two after a close game, the Hampstead team, with the exception of R. A. Hill, playing below their usual form.

The Hampstead team was:—F. R. Eiloart, H. M. Tennent, S. H. Shoveller, G. E. Winter, H. Waterman, C. M. Carey, C. H. Eiloart, P. Collins, E. L. Marsden, J. Greig, and R. A. Hill.
