A busy weekend for the 1st XI but unfortunately all other games were cancelled.

On Saturday we saw another convincing victory with Dave Dixon scoring both goals and thus putting the finishing touches to a good team performance.

The Sunday game against Hounslow was well supported and both sides gave the spectators an entertaining game to watch. Hampstead took the game to Hounslow in the first half and their efforts were rewarded with a well taken goal by Doug McCart after ten minutes. Hounslow replied quickly and it looked like being 1-1 at half time when an unfortunately placed divot gave Mark Woodbridge a clear shot with which he made no mistake.

In the second half Hampstead defended stoutly having to make 2 or 3 clearances off the line. We never managed to get the attack moving really fluently but Hounslow failed to beat John Brown in goal despite a couple of point blank shots, one of which was so fierce that he lost one of his contact lenses. At the end of the afternoon every one was satisfied Hounslow played the better hockey and won, Hampstead showed great determination and learnt a lot, the spectators had an excellent game to watch and Mike Featherstone found the lost contact lens as he walked off the pitch.
