

HAMPSTEAD HOCKEY CLUB BULLETIN
8th January 1977

Results	1st XI	2nd XI	3rd XI	4th XI	Extras	5th XI	6th XI
v Bedfordshire Eagles	0-1	0-1	1-0	2-4		5-3	3-1
v Southgate Adelaide					1-1

At last we managed to play a full set of fixtures with a reasonable amount of success against the National Club Champions of 1976.

Although all home sides played on all weather surfaces everyone I spoke to said they enjoyed their game immensely. Star of the day was Andy Gregory who scored 4 goals for the 5th XI.

The 6th XI also achieved a good win and might have scored more if Peter Bell had been given a larger goal to aim at.

INDOOR HOCKEY

We beat Teddington 5-3 but lost to Polytechnic 4-3 in the games last Wednesday in Middx. League at Ruislip.

The next evening games will be on Wednesday, 19th January 1977 but there is to be an all day tournament on Sunday, 30th January 1977 at the Vale Farm Sports Centre, Harrow. We are hoping to enter a strong side so please make yourselves available.

If you want to play indoor hockey contact Arthur Soares or Nigel Barker.

TRAINING

Training on Monday evenings is now resumed in the gym next to the club. Don't forget to bring an old sock to cover your stick and remember if you change at the club house don't go over to the gym in the shoes in which you will be training.

THEATRE NIGHT

Peter 'I'm really rather fast over 3 yards' Boisot says that there are 4 or 5 tickets left for the 'Bed before Yesterday' starring that fine Hampstead supporter Sheila Hancock at the Lyric Theatre this Friday, January 14th. Phone Peter on 235-9100 now.

Ticket holders meet at the Blue Posts in Rupert Street, Soho at 7.00 pm Friday. After the show there will be supper at the Pizza Express.

MISCELLANY

John Haynes still needs old hockey sticks for his boys at Highgate School.

Volunteers still required to act as stewards for the European Championships (I haven't had any yet).
