

STRATEGIC LAB PARTNERS KITTING EXPERIENCE

THE SLP WAY

Strategic Lab Partners is the premier source of custom kitting, clinical laboratory specimen collection and transport devices, bulk lab supplies, and secure kit warehousing, logistics, and fulfillment services.

It is a worldwide provider of clinical laboratory kitting for clinical, institutional, government emergency services, medical, and retail clients that require secure, streamlined, and efficient RNA/DNA sampling processes.

Strategic Lab Partners (SLP) is the premier source of custom specimen collection and transport kitting, clinical laboratory supplies, secure kit warehousing, logistics, and fulfillment services.

In 2020, Strategic Lab Partners formulated distribution agreements with several industry-leading and FDA Class I & II molecular transport, saliva collection, biosampling, multi-drug screening, and swab product manufacturers.

To date, Strategic Lab Partners surpassed the production and sale of 55 million medical specimen collection and transport kits. SLP attributes its exponential growth since 2019 and over 400 clients worldwide to aggressively sustaining its vision to innovate and bring maximum performance and value to its clients and partners.
